Homes, considered in detail.

Three homes built by Inspiration Homes, and three design studies by Patti Sharp.

Each page names what it shows. Location, size, schedule, and cost are intentionally left unstated.

BUILD WITH INTENTION.

What is inside

Built work and design work, kept distinct.

Use these pages to notice the rooms, proportions, finishes, and details that speak to you. Bring those observations to a private meeting, along with questions about your own property and priorities.

Built by Inspiration Homes

Barker French Country — a custom home.

Cayce Springs — an addition and renovation.

Richards Glenn — an owner's bath and walk-in closet.

Design studies

Rochester, Mayberry, and Hendersonville Log Home — completed designs by Patti Sharp at Inspiration Homes. Inspiration Homes did not build these homes.

IMAGE NOTE — Every image is a photograph. None is an architectural rendering. Built-project photographs were supplied by Inspiration Homes; design-study photographs show the finished rooms of homes designed by Patti Sharp.

Completed designs by Patti Sharp.

Mayberry — owner bath. A completed design by Patti Sharp.

Hendersonville Log Home — kitchen. A completed design by Patti Sharp.

About the design studies

Each study shows selected rooms from a home designed by Patti Sharp. They are shared for their design ideas, not as examples of Inspiration Homes construction.

Begin with your project

Bring what resonates.

This portfolio is a starting point, not a substitute for a conversation about your site, scope, or goals.

Notice

The rooms, materials, storage ideas, light, and details that help you articulate what matters in your own home.

Bring

Images, questions, and the people who should be part of the early conversation.

A thoughtful project begins with a clearer conversation.
